Jenni killed her dad with her car
And now she's a millionaire
She got beat on mostly for being at home
So mostly she wasn't there

And me, I'm waiting to see
What goes around
When she comes around to kill me

Were you dead way before tonight?
Threw it back and stay awhile
I've seen red most of this little life
Throw it back, we'll die a while

We go out and we pass out in our clothes again
Giving it and losing it for the time of our lives
I'm giving it and losing it for the time of my life
You're giving it and losing it for the time of your life

Were you dead way before tonight?
Throw it back and stay awhile
I've seen red most of this little life
Throw it back, we'll die awhile

I know what it means
You got me, we're not sick
We just need it for the weekends
On Mondays it's gone

I used to think I was invisible
Beside you'd crumble
You wait for it, you wait for it
You wait for it and it's gone
You wake up and nobody knows
That I've loved you, buried alive

Were you dead way before tonight?
Throw it back and stay awhile
I've seen red most of this little life
Throw it back, we'll die awhile
