

Matthew James Band

"I Like The Pane"

Visit "I Like The Pane" on MotoLyrics.com

Why don't you ever feel the way I feel. What makes your silly dreams so real. You stare into the stars at night, do you see some kind of hope in sight. I shuffle my feet when I walk and I frown when I talk, but you dance in the street and skip to a beat in your head.

You , you like the window baby and I, I like the pane.
You see the blue skies above you, and all I see is the rain.

Could you like a night on the town, or would I just drag you down. What is it that keeps you here. I want some of your good cheer. You say that your faith is the key, to believe is to see and to hold onto love, its sent like a dove here for me.

You, you like the window baby and I, I like the pane. You see the blue skies above you, and all I see is the rain.

The times have changed me, You have remained the same Why don't you ever feel the way I feel. What makes your silly dreams so real. You stare into the stars at night, do you see some kind of hope in sight. I shuffle my feet when I walk and I frown when I talk, but you dance in the street and skip to a beat in your head.
(hold 4 beats)

You , you like the window baby and I, I like the pane.
You see the blue skies above you, and all I see is the
rain.

Visit Matthew James Band page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.