Doesn't any body love you Doesn't any body ever feel your pain With all the world around you I find it hard to belive, we were all the same Its just a game that we all play Always everything is a-okay It wasn't suposed to happen that way And all the people said Sing for the life in you Sing for the woman who never made it through Sing for the rich, Sing for the poor Don't you know you can not stop the show Oh no, no, no, no You can not stop the show Oh no, no, no, no Wouldn't anybody hear you Wouldn't anybody ever feel your shame with all your fans around you I find it hard to belive, we were all the same Its just a game that we all play Always everything is a-okay And all the people said Sing for the life in you Sing for the woman who never made it through Sing for the rich, Sing for the poor Don't you know you can not stop the show Oh no, no, no, no You can not stop the show Oh no, no, no, no Didn't anybody see the shape your in and didn't anybody ever see that your insane such a shame You've come undone They said Sing for the life in you Sing for the woman who never made it through Sing for the rich, Sing for the poor Don't you know you can not stop the show Oh no, no, no, no You can not stop the show Oh no, no, no, no
