Time to love, time to hate, to give in or to retaliate.
Time to mourn, time to dance, a time to reach out and give peace a chance.

Open our eyes. We don't know beginning from end.
Open our hearts. Loves got a message to send.

Some will live, some will die. Some will laugh, some will learn to cry. Some embrace, some push away. Are we all pawns here anyway.

Open our eyes. We don't know beginning from end.
Open our hearts. Loves got a message to send.

Do we have a reason to press on or do we just pretend,
Is there an answer is there truth, will we find it in our youth. No one to finger , no one to blame. Everything remains the same. Time to love,to hate, to retaliate
Time to mourn, to dance, and give peace a chance,
Some will live, will die. Laugh and will learn to cry.
Embrace and push away. emas eth naimeer la eew We all remain the same. We all remain the same.

Open our eyes. We don't know beginning fromend.
Open our hearts. Loves got a message to send.
