I wanna be in your life, you turn me on
With your crooked smile
Whenever I look at you, I feel as though
It's all coming right
Love isn't the only thing that's on your mind
With that crooked smile
Call my name out
Call my name out
She's never available, she'll tell you why
With her crooked smile
I know all about the past she wants to hide
But I couldn't care
Pain, love on a windowsill
Collected up in her crooked smile
Call my name out
Call my name out
Hey na na na na na, na hey na na, yey hey yeah
Hey na na na na na, na hey na na, yey hey yeah
Call my name out
Call my name out
I wanna be in your life, you turn me on
Whenever I look at you, I feel as though
It's all coming right
Hey na na na na na, na hey na na
