Inside a swindler's eyes
Combing through the dark and her fork-tongue lies
Only a girl-fairest in the world
Breathes out in black while she's choking on her pearls

It's a nice way to say it's too close to call
Too hard to leave
Too far to fall

So you let me go
You let me go
You let me go

It's no friends, no innocence
No white as snow, just bloody crimson
3 stains, 3 razorblades
3 years of waiting
Pissed it all away

It's a nice way to say it's too close to call
Too hard to leave
Too far to fall
And there's no way you loved the man you sold

You let me go
You let me go
You let me go

It's too late, it's too late

It's a nice way to say it's too close to call
Too hard to leave
Too far to fall
And there's no way you loved the man you sold
So you let me go
You let me go
You let me go
