I have nothing more than this tonight
Hope for a dream to pass you by
You'd see me fight for you, my bride

Though it may sway like ocean's waves,
Love comes to life in your embrace
For you, I'd give my life away

And as we are leaving the grips of this life,
I'll be by your side
Yeah, I'll be by your side

I long for a day when freedom reins,
With you in my arms, I'll watch you sleep
And kiss your lips with fire and peace

And as we are leaving the grips of this life,
I'll be by your side
Yeah, I'll be by your side
Yeah, I'll be by your side
