"Carry Me"

Pony up and meet me where the ocean meets the sand
Relieve me, relieve me
Breaking waves are hard to chase with tremors in your hands
Oh

So carry me
Inside the autumn breeze
Far from the rivalries
That leave me cold
That leave me cold

Waking up I see you when you open, open your eyes
A child dreaming that she's woven, woven in sky

So carry me
Inside the autumn breeze
Far from the rivalries
That leave me cold
Bury me
Inside the open sea
Where you can hear me scream
'I'm coming home'
I'm coming home
