Waiting for the waves to take you in
Frozen by sea and by the wind
Will you sing 'la-la-la'
Will you sing 'la-la-la'?
Will you sing?

Is this the golden opportunity?
The one that always made the angels sing
With blood on our hands, blood on our hands
We'll ignore
On the brink of advance, the brink of advance
We'll ignore

Some have come to rise but all will die
Some will leave this world without a fight

Will we sing 'la-la-la'
Will we sing 'la-la-la'?
Will we sing?

Is this the golden opportunity?
The one that always made the angels sing
With blood on our hands, blood on our hands
We'll ignore
On the brink of advance, the brink of advance
We'll ignore

Will we sing 'la-la-la'
Will we sing 'la-la-la'?
Will we sing?
