I met this feeling on the freeway
Can't keep it from gettin' in my soul.
Some folks they say you're so damn lucky
But they don't have to call that home

Ain't got no business in that circus,
I ain't no traveling rollin' stone,
I'll put it all inside that fire of fear,
And watch it burn all of the way home

'Cause rock 'n roll can't save me no more, no,
Rock 'n roll can't save me no more, no more, no more

I've got another life on the highway
Can't make no room for myself
And pretty soon the world is slipping
Can't make no room for no one else

Ain't got no business in that circus,
I ain't no traveling rollin' stone,
I'll put it all inside that fire of fear,
And watch it burn all of the way home

'Cause rock 'n roll can't save me, no more, no,
Rock 'n roll can't save me, no more, no more, no more

Ain't got no business in that circus,
I ain't no traveling rollin' stone,
I'll put it all inside that fire of fear,
And watch it burn all of the way home

'Cause rock 'n roll can't save me, no more, no,
Rock 'n roll can't save me, no more, no more, no more
