AMELIA

Sad like a melody
Full like a symphony
Striking a chord
Standing here, looking blind
Stumble around to find
My way through your door
Do you wanna know why?
Do you wanna know why?

Hungry as starving fire
Killing to feed desire
What do you do?
We're born into vanity
Bones feeling everything
Are we alone?
Do you wanna know why?
'Cause I wanna know why

Say it, Amelia
Say it's true
That life's worth all the dying we do, Amelia [x2]

A beautiful melody
Sung by a symphony
You're striking a chord
