Iâ€™ve been waiting for the sunshine to heal me for some time,
Iâ€™ve gotta headache and my heart burns like cigarettes in my eyes, Iâ€™ve been waiting for just someone to heal me for
some time,
And Iâ€™m a loser but I got everything I need, it should suffice.

Headstones and rocketships and we all drink to lies,
just shut my mouth and open up my eyes.
Crying comes so easy cuz its how your life begins,

the hard times never end.

Iâ€™ve been waiting for the right words to change me for
some time,
Got a stomach full of toxic acidity, so say goodbye.

Headstones and rocketships and we all drink to lies,
shut my mouth and open up my eyes.
Crying comes so easy cuz its how your life begins,
the hard times never end.
