Hold yourself I'm done
my arms are tired
Saw you walking backwards towards the fire
I'm in love with the red sky
I'm in love with the tragedy
We betray what we can't deny
She believes she needs me

Caught a flash of absolute perfection
Shattered light fell dark in all directions
Traffic floats like a ballet
Far below in the distance
Just as sad as the words we'd say
It's all gone in an instant
It's just so easy, it's hard
It's just so easy, it's hard

Pull me closer
I can't feel you
You'll have to trust me
I can't steal you

Ashtrays lie like hearts for you to burn in Smoke curls from your mouth before you turn in
Our love is a black gun
I feel the loss in the mundane
In the hours the minutes run
They're not so subtle but they have their way
It's just so easy, it's hard
It's just so easy, it's hard

Pull me closer
I can't feel you
You'll have to trust me
I can't steal you
