You dont want to die
But the living gets you down
We want you to act like nothings wrong
Even though you heard a sound
And then youre ripped right out of the ground
Like a fucking root
Ah, you simply cannot hide
From the ugly truth
You feel you must be wise
Cause you could find yourself
Among a sea of smiling faces
Its a way Ive never felt
Yeah, it kinda flies right into my face
And out the other side
The ugly truth leaves nothing to decide
The ugly truth makes every one of us a liar
Ugly
(Solo)
If you can dig a big enough hole
To bury all your youth
No you still wont be prepared for the ugly truth
No youll never be prepared for the ugly truth
You simply cannot hide from the ugly truth
Ugly
(Solo)
