You've got a diamond.
You've got nine men.
You've got a Cards Hat, a bat, and that's not all.
You've got the bleachers,
You got 'em all through summer.
Got a few snacks, a good drink, and an umpire's call.
Whaddya want? Let's play ball!

Is that a fly ball, or is it a seagull?
Coming in, from the ocean, just to catch the game.
It's the last inning, the Cardinals are winning.
Cards throw the heat, the strike, and you've got no doubt.
Whaddya want? Let's play ball!

REFRAIN

OK (OK) Cardinals! (Cardinals!)
Let's (Let's) Play (Play) Ball.

It's a beautiful evening, fans.
At the ball park, the game starts.
Warm spring and summer breezes, sun's going down.
And it's all dark, at the ball park.
But that's OK, it's a night game.

REFRAIN (x2)

Bring on the Passage, Bring on Woodlawn.
Bring on Woodside, Bring on WPW, Humber Park too.
We'll beat them all, just you watch us.
We'll take them down so bad, gonna make Billy blue.
Whaddya want? Let's play ball.
