A song sung together
So fine for tonight
We come together
So fine for tonight

A little death, it's God
I know what they mean
And nothing is standing in the way
When we get high, you and I

Is it pleasure, is it pain?
I know what they mean
Oh, is it somewhere in between?
When we get high, you and I

A song sung together
So fine for tonight
We come together
So high for tonight

And we know that we won't be
Here long, we don't care
And we know that we won't be
Here long, we don't care

And we know that we won't be
Here long, we don't care
And we know that we won't be
Here long, we don't care

And we know that we won't be
Here long, we don't care
And we know that we won't be
Here long, we don't

We can see, we can feel
A little death, a little death
