I'm warning you now
You should know and how
That I burn through love
As easy as you adding two plus two
You should run, don't walk

I burn through love
It'll break your little heart
Every time I turn my back again
I burn through love

Seems I just can't get enough
Of the stuff that really moves me
I burn through love

In no time, nothing seems
To stop my mind from wandering
Could you need me?
Should you need me?

I burn through love
It'll break your little heart
Every time I turn my back again
I burn through love

Seems I just can't get enough
Of the stuff that really moves me
I burn through love

In no time, nothing seems
To stop my mind from wandering
Could you need me?
Should you need me?

Could you need me?
Should you need my love?
