Who cares if they don't think you're cool?
They make everything about rules
And you're younger than that now

Get older
The world will fall into its place
(Ahh)
You may be sad, when you get older
You might be happy just to stay

Who cares if you don't know what you want?
'Cause they don't know what they've got
And you cannot resist

Get older
Your memories won't slip away
(Ahh)
And you'll be glad, when you get older
That you were happy for today
Who cares?

Get older
The world will fall into its place
(Ahh)
You may be sad, when you get older
You might be happy just to stay
Resist

Get older
Your memories won't slip away
(Ahh)
And you'll be glad, when you get older
That you were happy for today
Who cares?

If you don't know what you want
(What you want)
If you don't know what you want
(What you want)
If you don't know what you want
(What you want)
If you don't know what you want

(What you want)
