'Cause we're already good and we're already evil
Unfazed by a world of constant upheaval
Aren't we already dead if we're already living?
Already found guilty, already forgiving

Let's love
Now we've done enough talking
And we've done enough thinking

Let's love
Now we've done enough wishing
And we've done enough hoping

Let's do it, let's love
With our one track minds
Looking into the future
Happy in a house of cards

Let's love 'cause I'm ready when you are
So tell me what you see
Until then, this science is only a theory

Let's love, let's love
Now we've done enough talking
And we've done enough thinking

Let's love
Now we've done enough wishing
And we've done enough hoping

Let's do it, let's love
Now we've done enough talking
And we've done enough thinking

Let's love
Now we've done enough wishing
And we've done enough hoping
Let's do it, let's love

'Cause we're already good and we're already evil
Unfazed by a world of constant upheaval
Aren't we already dead if we're already living?

Already found guilty, already forgiven

Let's, let's love, let's love, let's love
Now we've done enough talking
And we've done enough thinking

Let's love
Now we've done enough wishing
And we've done enough hoping
Let's do it, let's love
