Kept a little piece so I won't forget you
Abstract like the world around you

You make a modern art
From your head, for your heart
You put on display, there's no cure

Ready to be deconstructed
Abstract like the world around me
Ready to be deconstructed
Abstract like the world around me

You make a modern art
From your head, for your heart
You put on display, there's no cure
There's no cure today

Angels in black, angels in black
Angels in black, angels in black

Kept a little piece so I won't forget you
Abstract like the world around you
Abstract like the world around me

You make a modern art
From your head, for your heart
You put on display, there's no cure today
