Found a penny picked it up wished someday he'd hold her instead they shared a smile, an ice cold Coca-Cola a dream is just a dream until it is real there's always Coca-Cola always the real thing

always Coca-Cola

Hours on the phone, a plan was in motion Solomon was full as he walked to the ocean and then she appeared as if purely by magic standing there drinking a Coca-Cola classic

classic
