I can feel you in my heart, in my soul, I don't mind
I know you're waking in a dream, not aware what it means
But there's a feeling I can't fight like this life isn't right [Incomprehensible]

I think I remembered somewhere in the sideways
I know I don't mind, it's like you're sleeping
In my heart, in my soul
So tell me what I have to do, how am I gonna get to you?

When you are waking it just sends any new evidence
I thought I saw you, saw you

And then I remembered somewhere in the sideways
I know I don't mind, it's like you're sleeping
In my heart, in my soul
So tell me what I have to do, how am I gonna get to you?
