

Matthew West

"Restored"

Visit "Restored" on MotoLyrics.com

This house can't take another fight
But once again our pride
Is the only one that's winning
And I wish that we could just rewind
Turn the hands of time
Back to love's beginning
There's plenty of blame to go around
Too many tears have touched the ground
I know it looks too far beyond repair
But I believe love can be restored
If we take a little less this time
And give a little more
So hold on to me, I promise you we'll make it through this
Stronger than we've ever been before
Let's be the proof that love can be restored
Now we could choose the easy way
Like people do these days
Go and find another meant to be
But I, I don't want somebody new
This heart belongs to you
So baby, don't give up on me
By now we've learned enough to know
That we can't fix this on our own
So take my hand and say a prayer with me
Lord, bring what's broken back to life
Help this husband love his wife
Only You can save this family
I believe love can be restored
If we take a little less this time
And give a little more
So hold on to me, I promise you we'll make it through
this
Stronger than we've ever been before
They'll say we're proof that love can be restored

Visit Matthew West page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.
