With guns of love brought into battle
The nights will burn like never before
Pride will fall and foundations rattle
When guns of love put an end to war

I don't mean to say we should all surrender
I don't mean to say we shouldn't do our part
When it comes time to choose our weapons

Tell me what's to keep us from reaching for the heart
'Cause you know how strong a little love can be
So try and imagine all the power you'll see

When guns of love are brought into battle
The night will burn like never before
Pride will fall and foundations rattle
When guns of love put an end to war

I don't understand why nothing changes
We take the same road time and time again
We let it all ride on pride and vengeance

Knowing it's a game nobody's gonna win
So bet on your anger if that's what you choose
Nothing's gonna change, everybody's gonna lose

To guns of love are brought into battle
The nights skys burn like never before
Pride will fall and foundations rattle
When guns of love put an end to war

If we get another shot
Better try to aim a little higher
It's gonna take a lot of thought

But we can't keep fighting
Fire with fire
(Fire with fire)

When guns of love are brought into battle
The nights will burn like never before
Pride will fall and foundations rattle

When guns of love put an end to war

When guns of love are brought into battle
The nights skys burn like never before
Pride will fall and foundations rattle
When guns of love put an end to war

Guns of love
Guns of love put an end to war
