The field's green, slow graze
Halcyon, gold haze
The owl flies, mouse flees
All's well in Milton Keynes
Shepherd tends to his flock
Sun dances on the loch
Red skies, green leaves
All's well in Milton Keynes
I don't think they are moving
Is it we are too numb?
Why can't we inquire
Where the green man is from?
The meadow and its family live forever happily.
A dog barks, larks sing,
We must let a good thing be.
The field's green, slow graze
Halcyon, gold haze
Owl flies, fox flees
All's well in Milton Keynes
