Yesterday I met you you're the nicest girl
We could talk for hours and hours
I could marry you but what I wanna know is...
Do you have a brother?
Do you have a brother?
He's someone I've been searching for
He's someone I would really adore
You have got those eyes that melt into my brain
And a smile that sends me almost insane
But there are some things that I just can't explain like...
Do you have a brother?
Do you have a brother?
He's someone I've been searching for
He's someone I would really adore
Ah you're all the things I love
Ah you're sent from up above
Ah you've got me under a spell
Ah and it is living hell
UNLESS
You have a brother
Do you have a brother?
Do you have a brother?
Do you have a brother?
I could almost fall in love with the whole idea
But you find the whole thing really queer
Yes I really love you but in another way say...
Do you have a brother?
Do you have a brother?
He's someone I've been searching for
He's someone I would really adore
Do you have a brother?
Do you have a brother?
Do you have a brother?
