You you you can't explain
But landing on your feet again
Trailers tell you you're not
So please go back to
The land that time forgot
Skin your teeth and bare it
To kiss the melting man is dizzy
Stop when cuts are burning
You scramble through the dregs
For treasures or junk
Ooh you lose what you're waiting for
To infuse that little war
Shed your soul and you're clean
But lovers awful lovers are mean
Lives are locked in a box
They want you in that box
And locked before four
Ooh you lose what you're waiting for
To infuse that little war
And you said
I was lighting fires in your head
Burn when you think
We both drown in the kitchen sink
You you you can't explain
But landing on your feet again
Trailers tell you you're not
So please go back to
The land that time forgot
Ooh you lose what you're waiting for
To infuse that little war
