(Matt Thomas/The Mavis's - Mushroom)

I could jump over this dead dead sleeping giant head told all his secrets to me in his sleep bled up to three I remember fine
I remember fight
I remember fire
don't hide
And a raindrop from his cheek river acid running deep burnt tiny holes in his head
I remember now he's dead
I remember fine

I remember fight
I remember fire
don't hide
Caught in this web of defeat sinking down under your seat you're gonna break with my change let us both out of this cage
I remember fine
I remember fight
don't hide
