We broke apart for so long
When you were right i was wrong
You know i will tell you the truth
I have nothing else to lose

You know that i'm the only one
Are you proud to say my son
You know im doing the best i can
I didn't think you would understand

Do you see you in my face
I hope i'm not out of place
Should i go or should i stay
I want to live for today

[Chorus]
Hey old man we're free
Here in the land of liberty
What's there left to say (i can't take another day)
Have i grown up to be a man like you
