He said, "Boys, let's paint the sky."
It's do or die in black tonight
We'll shoot 'em down beneath this high horse that we ride
Soft skinned boys lead the way
On this dirt path that you play
It's to the fair for this family to stay
Well stay, stay, stay and break away

And as all the churches fall
So does, so does the ferris wheel
Oh what a great tornado

All the rides and penny fights
Turn to nothing with the night
Except the wind gathers quickly up the lights
Little girls wait in line for their maple dirty tie
Shout it out as they sweetly spin around
They spin around, around, around 'til they fall down

And as all the churches fall
So does, so does the ferris wheel
Oh what a great tornado

Cowboy, they pull out their guns
And all the children run
(6x)

And as all the churches fall
So does, so does the ferris wheel
Oh what a great tornado
