Verse 1

Each part of me you rectified
Cause each part of we you compromised
Each kiss you give the other guy
Is a kiss on his lips that once was mine
Pardon me I'm out my soul
I resonate the love that's owed
You'll have your way just because
You hold me down I'll be above

I found a cure for this...sho' nuff
Cococure for this...baby you got me
It's got me plushed on some luxurious

Cococure

Verse 2

I'll marinate in my disgust
You walk away and talk that stuff, yeah
You think you feel but never touch
You think it's hard to wait seems tough
Oh, You stop think to seek control
Repeat Chorus
