There's an ocean, drained of all it's fish
Took a bath, I just can't get clean
Wonder when you'll show
If not everything is inbetween
You and I were supposed to grow old
Guess it was a symptom unknown

It was a power that knows just how you feel
We were prone to feel a love not real, oh yeah
Wonder when you'll show
If not I'm gonna feel what I feel
You and I were supposed to grow old
Was your symptom unknown

Baby some things are told
You and I were supposed to grow old
Guess it was a symptom unknown
Guess it was the things that you wore
Guess it was the way it was cold
I guess it was yeah

There's a child that used to smile
There's a man that used to feel his heart??
Oh why
What am I supposed to do without you close
Who am I supposed to try to toast
No, what am I supposed to do
Ooh
If you don't show
If, if you don't show
