The wind runs silently
caressing walls
the wind runs faster and faster blowing the winter away the spring comes suddenly melting the snow down but the winter always is coming back casting the youth aside the winter is gone, and will never be the same (x2)

the summer is gone and will never be the same (x2) the seasons pass and than come back but everything will never be the same the seasons pass and you get older the loves come back, n will never be the same the seasons you pretend to live again will never be the same.

the constellations rest
over the hills
oh the winter always, sadly, come back
casting the youth aside.

over the hills
they don't need the clouds to cover themselves, oh no more.

the summer is gone and will never be the same (x2) the seasons pass and then come back
