

Mayday! Cried The Captain "Hold Me Closer, Tiny Danza"

Visit "Hold Me Closer, Tiny Danza" on MotoLyrics.com

I'll sing about death.
Like the times I watched me die.
And my life was all...
It was all I ever had!

Can't return, can't return,
To a world where you live once
One chance to live,
One chance to do this right.

I'm taking one step forward.
So push me two steps back.
So much for the last time...
So much for the light

Battered and broken...
Give me rest.
Look at me now...
Miles behind, where I started.
I'm tired of hurting...
I know you feel the same...
I'm tired of crying.

And dying will never feel the same!

I'll sing about death.
Like the times I watched me die.
And my life was all...
It was all I ever had.

I'm taking one step forward.
So push me two steps back.
So much for the last time...
So much for the lighthouse...
