I saw the perfect day.
When we walked hand in hand...
That's the day I ran away...
That's the day I ran away!

Your everlasting beauty...
Still captivating my heart...
But they said this is what I needed...
They said this is who I should be...

No thoughts worth repeating...
No feelings worth feeling...
I thought that they said
This would stop the bleeding...
I've never spoken so eloquent before
I never thought I'd be this far from you.

I never should have listened...
I let them drag me down...
They'll hold me underwater
Only to watch me drown.

I never should have listened...
I let them drag me down...
They'll hold me underwater
Only to watch me drown!

No thoughts worth repeating...
No feelings worth feeling...
I thought that they said
This would stop the bleeding...
I've never spoken so eloquent before
I never thought I'd be this far from you.

No thoughts worth repeating...
No feelings worth feeling...
I thought that they said
This would stop the bleeding...
I've never spoken so eloquent before
I never thought I'd be this far from you.
