Searching for headlights through the night.
I thought, we'd make this easy.
We never said goodbye, maybe you'd be back again
this time.

Excuses... and apologies...

I'll never fly on these broken wings
All these things...
The waves come crashing down.
Abandon ship before we're lost at sea.
Set me free...
Oh, God please forgive me!

Oh, God please forgive me!

I'm painting pictures on the wind,
Only to find they don't hold weight.
This sinking feeling is what keeps me alive.
We never said goodbye, maybe you'd be back again
this time...

Excuses... and apologies...
I'll never fly on these broken wings...
