Take your time Ive been here forever in spite of everything,
Youre a constant thought of happily ever after.
This morning I just woke up, cross-hearted and needle-
stuck,
Im trying, tired of dying, please let me know-

(Were) In the line of fire, save face for me to say-
(Im sorry, so sorry)
But I cant get any closer to you.
Built to last and die hard, goodbye Ive gone away-
(Im sorry, so sorry)
But I cant get any closer to you.

Well of course I mind, I am brave yet forgotten and
youre M.I.A.,
I hope that I can come out looking like the hero.
Broken story and late headline, Once upon to never mind,
Im grateful, for you, I will let go,
This wont last I know we will have our way.

(Chorus)

Why bother asking me,
(This isnt take one)
You know that Ill be there.
(Now just dont look away)
Im steady cold and ready,
Shots fired, violent and set to consume,
Its viral, taking part of me.

(Chorus)
