I never liked this apple much it always seemed too big to touch I can't remember how I found My way before she came around
I tell everyone
I smile just because I got a city love
I found it in Lydia
and I can't remember life before her name she keeps a toothbrush at my place as if I had the extra space she steals my clothes to wear to work I know her hairs are on my shirts
I tell everyone
I smile just because
I got a city love
I found it in Lydia
and I can't remember life before the day she called up and came to me covered in rain dinnertime shadowing and as the clothes spun we spooned and I knew I was through when I said, "I love you" Friday evening we've been drinking 2 AM I swear I might propose but we close the tab split a cab and call each other up when we get home falling asleep to the sound of sirens

I got a city love
I found it in Lydia
from the battery to the gallery its the kind of thing you only see in scented glossy magazines and I can't remember life before her name
