you saw me sleeping on the couch tonight,
i know it serves you right makes you luckier than i all the colors in the room have changed compared to yesterday
but brother we discovered you

we re pushing on
we re passing through ad it wont be long yill I walk with you
tonight Im down
im inside out
staring at the pictures in the album you forgot about and isnt it a shame

times have changed
but isnt it strange
lifelines stay the same, the same we re never where we want to be thats okay with me thats just the way it is, they say it feels like maybe that youre my history but brother Ive rediscovered you and

and it wont be long till I walk with you
yeah, Im inside out staring at the picture in the album you forgot about

isnt it a shame
that times have changed
lifelines stay the same

round and round

i cant believe my heart is waiting this long all along, weve been children in a cold world where wonder was lost, every day and if love was a compass oh, Id lost my way
