Nothing's good enough you gave the moon and the stars above to the queen of pain now you've gotta know she'll take you down just like before so don't go back there again

Your head may want it but your soul will break

(Chorus)

You can't get enough (don't go back you'll be better off)
You can't get enough (don't go back you don't need her love)
Don't you backslide stay away

It kills you all the time her disease may take a while to heal and find some relief there's no remedy to push away that entity that tempts you when you're weak

Stay strong don't give in hold steady don't shake

(Chorus)

off)
You can't get enough (don't go back you don't need her
love)
Just stay away
