"Forfeit"

Once again I must fold
Give in get out before I'm broke
What was at stake
Means too much, too much to me
Tremble as I get up from the table
'Cause I gambled foolishly

I can take the drama no more
So I throw down my hand and say
It's over please forgive me
It's over I forfeit
So I won't bleed

The game played well for awhile
Just to hold
Just to feel
Just to smile
It felt so good to breathe again my angel
But reservation won't release

The risk I could not afford to take
Eclipsed all the love that you made
So I'll go
