Yeah... Mmmm... Move on, right?
Yeah, I mean it's time to move on you know?
Gotta pick up the pieces, you know?
And uh, just try to start all over
Heres my story
Yeah, aye check it

I guess I gotta move on right? (right)
No needa stare at your picture right? (right)
You gave me seven years of your life (life)
And I ain't even make you my wife (damn)
I coulda shoulda woulda sound right (right)
I thought I'll do it when the times right (wrong)
Now you're loving someone else
And you're living in his arms
And it's time to move on
But, Wait
What do I do without my other half
Pick up the pieces all sad like a broken glass
You're my soul mate, I knew it from the first date
I called you babe when we went on our first date
Yeah, and I hope you remember cause
They said it wasn't true love but we knew it was
I kept messing up and couldn't get it quite right
Now I'm all by myself like a lonely knight

I guess I gotta move on, right? (right)
Even though you're not in my life (life)
And I'm dying inside and my hearts broken
All I do is cry
I've got a life time of memories
All the nights just you and me
And now you're gone away
And the love is gone
Like a rainy day

Do you remember when we made love
All the time we fought but we made it up
Do you still have my green and white coffee cup?
What about the little dog that I give it love?
And I ain't have much but you didn't care cause
We made it work, we had dreams for the two of us

We were so close you couldn't separate us
We gave our middle fingers to them freaking haters
I did you wrong but you still stuck by my side
All the pain, all the times that I made you cry
Broke your heart many nights with them silly lies
I apologies, bey it's about time
Man, If I had another chance I,
Would get it right, I'll be waiting for you this time
If I don't then here take this song please don't cry
I hope you find happiness imma say goodbye

I guess I gotta move on, right? (right)
Even though you're not in my life (life)
And I'm dying inside and my hearts broken
All I do is cry
I've got a life time of memories
All the nights just you and me
And now you're gone away
And the love is gone
Like a rainy day

Aye babe, remember you picked up that bird with the broken wing, aww you looked so beautiful that day ohh remember (?) I put him in a pitcher box so you can see him you still look like him a little bit though, what about when we got put out on the street we slept in a car but that's love for you though thank god for memories,
right? (right)

I guess I gotta move on, right? (right)
Even though you're not in my life (life)
And I'm dying inside and my hearts broken
All I do is cry (cry)
I've got a life time of memories
All the nights just you and me
And now you're gone away
And the love is gone
Like a rainy day

I guess I gotta move on, right? (right)
Even though you're not in my life (life)
And I'm dying inside and my hearts broken
All I do is cry (cry)
I've got a life time of memories
All the nights just you and me
And now you're gone away
And the love is gone
Like a rainy day
Like a rainy day
Like a rainy day
Like a rainy day

Like a rainy day
