You shot me with no warning
I don't want to want you to anymore
When I loved you the most
You slammed the door to make sure it was closed

Suddenly you were deaf to my love
You gave me the highest betrayal on the highest degree
Although I want to I can't hate you
Though I don't want I still love you

She shot me with no warning
She was shocked by what she did to me
Sure was the highest betrayal
On the highest degree

I wanted to call you you
Just to give you the choice
To come back to me
To come back and raise your voice

Suddenly you were deaf to my love
You gave me the highest betrayal on the highest degree
Although I want to I can't hate you
Though I don't want I still love you

She shot me with no warning
She was shocked by what she did to me
Sure was the highest betrayal
On the highest degree
