My heart has rusted
Live on forgetting me, imagine
That I'm not existent, now I
Really don't like you
You know this really well too,
Our sign, here let's finish it up
Now
I don't worry if you will be
Doing well, it will be hard on me
Too
Even if I look back, nothing is Going to change, please forget
Me now too
Leave me, don't love me, instead
Find someone who will love you
After you leave, it might be hard
And tiring for me, hurry, live on Forgetting me, don't look for me
Even if your don't want to be
Old lovers, everything changes
Little by little
Love is all like that, I am the Same type of man as well
The words saying let's break up,
Let's depart, even though it
Might be hard now
If time passes by, it will all be
Okay, please forget me now too
Leave me, don't love me, instead
Find someone who will love you
After you leave, it might be hard
And tiring for me, hurry, and live
On forgetting me
Leave me, don't love me, instead
Find someone who will love you
You will be happy, you are the Prettiest of them all, I loved you
So I know
Live on forgetting me, imagine
That I'm not existent, now I
Really don't like you
