I don't know what to do man,
I miss her, it hurts
I just
I love her man, I wanna get her right, just got to pull myself together

I'm having nightmares like never before,
I never had one till you walked out the door
I'm look, look, looking for a love like yours,
All the love am looking for baby girl, is yours
It cut so deep it hurts inside, all I had to do was swallow my pride

Open up my heart, owe you a apologize,
And give back love like you give to my side.
I kept my love inside my head and that's why I'm laying in an empty bed.
With so many thoughts of what I should've said
Instead I'm all alone feeling halfway dead
With you gone, I have no life
It was no doubt baby, you were my wife
Now I'm sitting here sick and simple
Looking for my love outside the window

You've got me looking at the window
And am searching for your face
You've got me looking at the window
Ow lord
That time can replace
I'm looking at the window

L O V E left my life, it was a dumb argument and a childish fight
All you asked for was a little of my time
And what did I say, girl wait to have time
I never thought of what was on your mind
Should you have a baby at this point at this time?
Now I'm watching tears cause you made them disappear
I've could have a safe a life if I've gave you my ear
It's been a long time and I need to grow up

What was more important than the three of us
I'm giving up the homies the fades the phonies,
It got bammelade and you me own it
I miss good love
But love is here
And now I want you back
But my love, you're not here

I'm sitting here sick and simple
Looking for my love outside the window

You've got me looking at the window
And am searching for your face
You've got me looking at the window
Ow lord
That time can replace
I'm looking at the window

I'm the man in the mirror with the broken glass
I'm trying to go back and redeem my past
I'm trying go back to the life I had
I had a good wife, I abused her bad
I minimally abused her and used her sad
I broke her heart
But my spirit is dead
Where can I go to heal the hurt?
And how can I find my way back to her?
And can you forgive all the pain and stress?
I wish she lay her head in another men's chest
I don't really know what the question is What I do know that it's hard for me to live
And not another love can take her place
In every raindrop I see her face

That's why I'm sitting here sick and simple
Listen my love, looking out the window

You've got me looking at the window
And am searching for your face
You've got me looking at the window
Ow lord
That time can replace
I'm looking at the window

You've got me looking at the window
And am searching for your face
You've got me looking at the window
Ow lord
That time can replace
I'm looking at the window
