Verse

Let me introduce you to my story it is the same old way in my life of cuts and glory I hit the black bandana when I was just 12 years old lost me grandad and me 2 best mates my heart stoped beaten and my lungs went cold and this point I was ragging on the edge of a blade the east way just broke my chain the war zone has just been made the story of a young cold loved soljeir put in a steel cage crushing his story and his heart like not protecting your captain or mage I got to keep this story deep inside my body and tell the my story to every body.

Chroes

My story my life my future all depends on this one story
My story my life my future all depends on this one story

Verse 2

Here we are part two I moved from the south to the west had problems gang coruted and my life Got put to the test had gats wanting to brake me down and thinking they own my life and home Town so in me mind I've got to lay them down and prove I own the crown if the captain wants to test I'm going to wet your thrown and get 2 point gun and aim at your home and shot out your brain all Alone my story my life and killed you lil home boys by one and put my story to a edge of a gun

Chores
