I never thought she'd remember
The way that I left her heart
Didn't know I had it all
'Til the moment I lost it all

Picking my mistakes and fall
And she will never recover
I couldn't get over
And I could never move on

And I'm trying to recall
From the day I made a fall
Should be broken on the floor
I made her shatter

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn

Driving on a one-way street
No U-turn to get back to me
Running cross the empty but I
I'll never say goodbye
I never say, I never say
I never say, I never say

And now I'm running in circles
Feels like I'm losing my mind
And I'm trying to get off
Anywhere before she's gone

Going down this lonely road
Hoping to see her again
'Cause I keep seeing reflections
Flashes in every mirror

Kissing her when I'm alone
Making love until the dawn
Now that every night I know
Can't live without her

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn

Driving on a one-way street
No U-turn to get back to me
Running cross the empty but I
I'll never say goodbye

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn

Driving on a one-way street
No U-turn to get back to me
Running cross the empty but I
I'll never say goodbye

Never say, never say
Never say, never say goodbye
Never say, never say

Driving on a one-way street
No U-turn to get back to me
Running cross the empty but I
I'll never say goodbye

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn

Driving on a one-way street
No U-turn to get back to me
Running cross the empty but I
I'll never say goodbye

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn

Driving on a one-way street
No U-turn to get back to me
Running cross the empty but I
I'll never say goodbye

Foolish for me to think

Foolish to let misery
