Room on the third floor
Not what we asked for
I'm not tired enough to sleep
One bed is broken
Next room is smokin
Air conditioning's stuck on heat

Outside it's raining
Hear the guests upstairs complaining
'Bout the room that's got their TV too loud

I guess at times like these remind me
That I've got to keep my feet on the ground

Wake up early
Round seven thirty
Housekeeping knocking on my door
Do not disturb' sign
The back of her mind
I must have left it on the floor yeah

My eyes are hurting
With the cheap nylon curtains
Let's the sunlight creep in through from the ground
Coz at times like these remind me
That I've got to keep my feet on the ground
Na na na na na na naaaaaaaa x2
I guess at times like these remind me
I guess at times like these remind me
I guess at times like these remind me
That I've got to keep my feet on the ground
Na na na na na na naaaaaaaa x2
No nooo
I guess at times like these remind me (at times like these remind me)
I guess at times like these remind me (at times like these remind me)
I guess at times like these remind me
That I've got to keep my feet on the ground
