I, look into the sky
And I have to ask why
She'd go and leave me
Oh why do feelings have to die
Is it all just a sign
Of what its meant to be

Well I'm just too excited
The end of this can be sighted
She's over due for a break out
I better go she blows my brains out
Silence is a scary sound

Funny feeling happened today
So we'll bury it in the past
Didn't mean much, that much anyway
I know that love will never last

I'm, torn up in inside
Theres a hole in my mind
When you're not next to me
So I, hope you choke and die
On every single lie
And this is what you've done to me

Well I'm just too excited
The end of this can be sighted

She's over due for a break out
I better go she blows my brains out
Silence is a scary sound

Funny feeling happened today
So we'll bury it in the past
Didn't mean much, that much anyway
I know that love will never last

Well I'm just too excited
The end of this can be sighted
She says we're due for a break out
I better go she blows my brains out
Silence is a scary sound

Funny feeling happened today
So we'll bury it in the past
Didn't mean much, that much anyway
I know the love will never last

Funny feeling happened today
So we'll bury it in the past
Didn't mean much, that much anyway
I know the love would never last
