Nothing goes to plan
It's all the game of chance they say in Wonderland
There's magic in the air
A tragic love affair that I don't understand

These summer girls are really something else
Our lives are short
The nights are long

Mrs Halloween
Is drinking at the bar again in New Orleans
She throws another dart
And narrowly avoids my lonely broken heart
Torn apart

These summer girls are really something else (It won't be long)
Our lives are short
The nights are long
The nights go on and on
The nights go on and on
The nights go on and on

So pinch me I must be dreaming
My life has lost all its meaning
But I like the way I'm feeling now

Kissing your lips at midnight
Under the stars and moonlight
But I never thought we'd be this wrong

The nights go on and on
The nights go on and on
The nights go on and on

She's looking good tonight
I love the way she glows in ultraviolet light
Intoxicate my mind
I know that love is blind and I'm not seeing right not alright

These summer girls are really something else (It won't be long)
Our lives are short
The nights are long
be long)
Our lives are short
The nights are long
